POPI Statement: Transfer of member company information is vulnerable and at risk of being intercepted by others with malicious intentions. Therefore, the need has arisen to regulate the protection of personal information globally. In South Africa, the Protection of Personal Information Act (Act 4 of 2013) (“POPIA”) was implemented by the legislature on 1 July 2020. POPIA became legally enforceable on 1 July 2021.

SALDA supports the principles guiding the protection of personal information, will embrace these principles to become compliant with the legislation and hence not provide member details to any parties without the permission of the member company so involved.

I would like SALDA to add me to a list to receive information about events, products, services and promotions which SALDA believes may be of interest to me via Email and Phone. I can withdraw my consent and unsubscribe at any time by e-mailing exec@salda.org.za

I acknowledge that SALDA will process my Personal Information according to its Privacy Policy, which includes information about my rights.

By submitting this form, I acknowledge that I have read and understand SALDA Privacy Policy and agree to the Terms of Use.

- Notice of Termination (Constitutional Requirement):

In terms of the SALDA Constitution, members who do not wish to continue with their membership must provide three months' written notice.

- Timing of Notice:

This written notice must be received before the AGM in 2027, as the invoicing process will commence after the AGM. To meet the three-month requirement, SALDA must therefore receive written notice no later than 31 December 2026.

Declaration: As a member of SALDA, I agree on behalf of the company to abide by the SALDA Constitution and Code of Ethics /FCPA (Foreign Corrupt Practices Act) for anti-bribery and corruption and thereby to ensure that relevant staff members complete an applicable CODE training.
